Please let me know in your next Sunday paper how many children it takes to have one school in a district.
PERRY FENSTERMAKER.
The minimum number is fifteen.

Grantsville, Utah, Aug. 26, 1907.
If a woman is granted alimony in Idaho, and the defendant is in Utah and has not paid the alimony, is there any law to compel him to return to Idaho and oblige, yours respectfully,
MRS. MOLLIE JENSEN.
Consult an attorney, explaining your case in full.

Salt Lake City, Sept. 3, 1907.
Will you kindly answer in your Sunday paper the following question: What course can one take to trace a man who disappeared seven years ago and is supposed to have enlisted with the Portland regiment, under an assumed name, for the Philippines, and to have been killed in the Boxer war in China? A question of settlement of property is involved.
A SUBSCRIBER.

Write to the United States War Department, Washington, D. C., explaining in full your case and giving as complete a description of the man as possible. If you know the assumed name, give this to the authorities, otherwise it would be impossible to tell you anything or investigate on the information which your question embraces.

Ely, Nev., Aug. 29, 1907.
Kindly answer the following in Sunday issue. My father came from England to this country in 1850, and at once took out his first papers. But he has never taken out his final papers. I followed him three years later. Last November I came of age. Now, where do I stand? Am I a citizen, and can I homestead or vote or locate mineral land?
DAN ROBERTS.
You stand precisely where your father did, and must go on from where he left off. That is, you must take out your second papers before you become a full-fledged citizen.

Escalante, Utah, Aug. 16, 1907.
Will you please answer the following question in your Question and Answer column of your paper, and oblige: If the Government of the United States withdraws coal land from entry can a man go on to said land and locate for petroleum and hold it legally?
READER.

Yes, he can.
